MESSAGE FROM THE CFO

The District of Columbia is a single unit of government that provides services that in the fifty states are provided by the states and multiple types of local governments. Typical local level revenue sources used by the District include the real property tax, personal property tax, deed transfer and recordation taxes, traffic fines, and a variety of other taxes and fees. D.C. also uses many state revenue sources, including the individual income tax, the general sales and use tax, motor vehicle license fees, business net income taxes and various excise taxes. The District levies 16 taxes and assesses about 1,800 fees in support of General Fund revenue each year. With over $5 billion generated by DC taxes and non-tax revenues, our taxpayers are an important investor in the nation's capital city.

The District's principal local revenue producers are the individual income tax, real property taxes, sales tax and gross receipts taxes. The individual income tax is the largest source of tax revenue for the District, providing 24.4 percent of the total local source General Fund revenues for fiscal year 2006. Because the individual income tax is progressive, the rate of increase for income tax revenues is greater than the rate of increase in income subject to the tax. Personal income tax credits include out-of-state tax credit, credit for child and dependent care expenses, DC police first time homebuyer credit, DC low income credit, property tax credit, and DC earned income tax credit.

The real property tax is the second largest source of tax receipts for the District government, accounting for 22.8 percent of its total local source General Fund revenues in fiscal year 2006. Several property tax relief options are available to eligible property owners. The most widely used is the Homestead Deduction Program. For owner-occupied residences of five units or less, the homestead program provides a $60,000 (increase to $64,000, effective FY2008; and in addition, the homestead deduction will be increased annually beginning FY2009 by a cost-of-living adjustment) deduction from the assessed value. Other property tax relief measures include the Senior Citizen Homestead Tax Relief Program, which allows certain senior citizens a 50 percent reduction in property taxes, and a 10 percent cap on annual growth of real property tax liability for homeowners.

The District's third largest revenue producer, the sales and use tax, is based on taxable sales in the District, which include most retail items, construction materials, and utilities used by business entities. Groceries, prescription and non-prescription drugs, disability appliances, and dry cleaning and laundry services are exempted from sales and use tax collections. This tax provided 15.4 percent of the District's fiscal year 2006 local revenue.

This publication details the various taxes used by the District, in order to enhance citizens' awareness of their tax and revenue system. This report was prepared by Edward W. Wyatt of the Office of Revenue Analysis.

INTRODUCTION

Each year the Office of Revenue Analysis in the Office of the Chief Financial Officer receives numerous requests from citizens, legislators and the general public for statistics relating to District tax collections, tax burdens and tax rates.

D.C. TAX FACTS presents a brief summary of the District's tax structure, tax rates, legal references and other comparative tax data. Tax rates used in this publication are those in effect as of January 1, 2007. More detailed information on these subjects may be obtained through requesting other publications of this office, including: (1) A Comparison of Tax Rates and Burdens in the Washington Metropolitan Area, and (2) Tax Rates and Tax Burdens in the District of Columbia: A Nationwide Comparison. These publications are available on the Internet at WWW.CFO.DC.GOV.

The primary source for the 2006 revenue numbers presented in the report is the District of Columbia Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) estimates presented are those submitted to the U.S. Congress as of June 2007.

The user should note that this report details only the District of Columbia taxes. District of Columbia revenues (including non-tax revenues and grants) totaled $5,238,583 in FY2006.

Questions or requests for copies of publications should be directed to: Office of the Chief Financial Officer, Office of Revenue Analysis, 441 4th Street, NW, Suite 410 South, Washington, DC 20001. Telephone (202) 727-7775.

INCOME TAXES

CORPORATION AND UNINCORPORATED BUSINESS FRANCHISE TAXES

GENERAL LIABILITY:

The corporation franchise tax is imposed on corporations carrying on a trade, business or profession in the District or receiving income from District sources. Effective July 1, 1981, financial institutions became subject to the corporation franchise tax. Prior to this date these institutions were subject to a gross earning tax.

Whoever engages in a trade, business or profession in the District of Columbia must register. Failure to register may result in a fine of not more than $500 and a civil penalty of $50 for each and every separate day that such failure to register continues.

The tax on unincorporated businesses is imposed on businesses with gross income over $12,000. A 30% salary allowance for owners and a $5,000 exemption are deductible from net income to arrive at taxable income. No person other than a corporation shall engage in or conduct a trade, business or profession, which is excluded from the imposition of the District of Columbia tax on unincorporated businesses and whose gross income for the calendar year is expected to exceed $12,000, without first making application for a trade and business license. A person who fails to obtain a trade or business license may be fined not more than $300 for each day that such failure continues.

Generally, persons exempt from filing an unincorporated business franchise tax return include trade, business, or professional organizations having a gross income not in excess of $12,000 for the taxable year, and trade, business, or professional organizations which by law, customs, or ethics cannot be incorporated, such as doctors and lawyers. Federal conformity is maintained pursuant to Public Law 105-100. It continues the District's limited conformity with the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) of 1986 as amended through August 20, 1996.

D.C. Code Citation: Title 47, chapter 18.

PRESENT RATES: (January 1, 2007)

The franchise tax rate is 9.975 percent of taxable income, 9.5 percent rate plus surtax equal to 5 percent of the base rate.

GENERAL LIABILITY:

The tax is imposed on every resident, defined as any individual who is domiciled in the District at any time during the tax year, or who maintains an abode in the District for 183 or more days during the year.

On June 11, 1982, D.C. Law 4-118, the District of Columbia Individual, Estates, and Trusts Federal Conformity Tax Act, which adopted the federal definition of income and made other modifications to the D.C. income tax, became law. Provisions of this legislation are effective for tax years beginning after December 31, 1981.

Further conformity to federal provisions was made pursuant to D.C. Law 5-32, the District of Columbia Income and Franchise Tax Conformity Act of 1983; the Conformity Act of 1984; the Income and Franchise Tax Conformity and Revision Amendment Act of 1987.

Under current District law (DC Law 13-175) federal changes in income and deductions are adopted automatically.

The latest conformity legislation is Public Law 105-100. It maintains the District's limited conformity with the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) of 1986 as amended through August 20, 1996.

ESTATE TAXES

GENERAL LIABILITY:

The estate tax is imposed on the estate of every decedent who died while still a resident of the District, and on the estate of every nonresident decedent owning property having a taxable situs in the District at the time of his or her death.

The District's estate tax is no longer in conformity with the federal estate tax. The Federal Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act (EGTRRA) of 2001 changed the conformity with the federal estate tax. This legislation gradually eliminates the federal estate tax over the next several years, with full repeal taking effect in year 2010. However, the estate tax elimination is only temporary with the full estate tax scheduled to return in 2011.

District law, however, stipulates that existing District estate tax laws are automatically decoupled from the recent and forthcoming federal estate tax law changes. For example, while the federal threshold was $1.5 million in FY 2005, the Estate and Inheritance Tax Clarification Temporary Act of 2004 raised the estate tax filing threshold from $675,000 to $1,000,000 to decedents whose death occurs on or after January 1, 2003. Hence, some District estate tax payers may have been and others may be required in the future to file and pay District estate taxes even when no federal filing or tax is due. The federal threshold became $2,000,000 in January of 2006.

There is no inheritance or gift tax in the District of Columbia.

INSURANCE PREMIUMS TAX

GENERAL LIABILITY:

The tax is imposed on the gross insurance premiums received on risks in the District, less premiums received for reinsurance assumed, returned premiums and dividends paid to policyholders. All domestic and foreign insurance companies are liable for the tax, which is in lieu of all other taxes except real estate taxes and fees provided for by the District's insurance law.

REAL PROPERTY TAX

GENERAL LIABILITY:

All real properties, unless expressly exempted, are subject to taxation at 100% of estimated market value. The current District of Columbia property tax uses three classifications of property: Class I--improved residential real property that is occupied (owner and rental) and is used exclusively for non-transient residential dwellings purposes; Class II--commercial property; and Class III--unimproved or abandoned property.

The assessed value for each Class I owner-occupied single-family residence (including condominiums) is reduced by a $60,000 (will increase to $64,000, effective October 1, 2007) for all Class I properties (owner-occupant). This exemption will be indexed annually (CPI), beginning October 1, 2008. The assessed value of residential real property owned by a cooperative housing association is reduced by 60% (but the exemption may not exceed $60,000 multiplied by the number of units occupied by the shareholders). First-time homeowners may be eligible for abatement of real property taxes for a period of five years under the First Time Homebuyers Lower Income Home Ownership Tax Abatement program. Owners of certified historic buildings may benefit from a special tax program for at least twenty years. The District also has a property tax relief "circuit-breaker" program for qualified homeowners and renters, which provides a tax credit for those with low and moderate income, the elderly, blind and disabled. For qualified retired senior homeowners, the District allows a 50 percent reduction in the amount of real property taxes that would otherwise be payable. In addition, a property tax deferral program allows qualified homeowners to defer a portion of their taxes. Homeowners have a 10 percent annual cap on growth in their real property tax liability.

In FY 1999, the District began a 3-year phase-in of a triennial assessment system. Under this system, properties in the District were divided into three triennial groups for assessment purposes. Each tri-group represents approximately a third of the total value of taxable real property in the District. One tri-group was reassessed each year: Tri-group I in FY 1999, tri-group II in FY 2000, and tri-group III in FY 2001. Under the triennial assessment system, annual decreases in assessed value were immediately realized if owners appealed for an adjustment. Annual increases in assessed value were phased in one-third at a time over a three-year period.

Beginning in FY 2002, the District made its transition back to an annual assessment system. During this transition, one triennial group shifts into annual assessment each year through FY 2004, beginning with tri-group I in FY 2002. Tri-group II shifted annual assessment in FY 2003, followed by tri-group III in FY 2004. All real property in the District is once again assessed on an annual basis. The return to annual assessment means that annual assessed values and growth rates are more representative of their market values.

D.C. Code Citation: Title 47, Chapters 7 - 14.

The District's Real Property Tax Year is October 1 through September 30.

RECORDATION AND TRANSFER TAXES
ECONOMIC INTEREST TAX

GENERAL LIABILITY:

Recordation Tax

The recordation tax is imposed on the recording of all deeds to real estate in the District. The basis of the tax is the amount of consideration given for the property, including cash, property other than cash, mortgages, liens and security interest in non-residential property. Where there is no consideration or where the consideration is nominal, the tax is imposed on the basis of the fair market value of the property.

D.C. Code Citation: Title 42, Chapter 9.

Economic Interest Tax

Economic interest tax is triggered by either one of the following two elements: 1) 80% or more of the assets of the entity consist of real property located in the District of Columbia; or 2) more than 50% of the gross receipts of the entity are derived from ownership or disposition of real property in DC. The consideration is not always equal to the assessed value of the property. The consideration is what is paid for the interest being transferred. If there is no tangible consideration, then the tax basis will be the assessed value of the property owned by the corporation.

SALES AND USE TAX

GENERAL LIABILITY:

The District of Columbia has five tax categories that fall under the general sales and use tax. The retail sales tax rate of 5.75% is imposed on all tangible personal property sold or rented at retail in the District and on certain selected services. Grocery-type foods, prescription and non-prescription drugs, disability appliances and residential utility services are among items exempt from the sales tax. Construction materials and business purchases of public utility services are among those included. The other rate categories apply to goods and services as indicated below.

The use tax is imposed at the same rate on property sold or purchased outside the District and then brought into the District to be used, stored or consumed. Vendors subject to the jurisdiction of the District are required to collect and pay the use tax. When the vendor is not subject to the jurisdiction of the District, or when the purchaser brings the property into the District, the purchaser is required to pay the tax.

D.C. Code Citation: Title 47, Chapters 20 and 22.

PRESENT RATES: (January 1, 2007)

A five-tier rate structure is presently in effect:

- 5.75% Retail rate for tangible personal property and selected services, food sold in vending machines
- 9% Liquor sold for off the premises consumption
- 10% Restaurant meals, liquor sold for consumption on the premises, rental vehicles, prepaid telephone cards, tickets sold for baseball games, merchandise sold at baseball games, tickets sold for events at the Verizon Center and merchandise sold at the Verizon Center.
- 12% Parking motor vehicles in commercial lots, rolled tobacco products usually used for smoking, chewing or as snuff, made in whole or in part with tobacco, except for cigarettes, premium cigars or pipe leaf tobacco products.
- 14.5% Transient accommodations

Note: Convention Center sales tax rates of 4.45% (14.5% rate) for transient accommodations and 1.0% for restaurants (10% rate) are included in rates noted above.

TOLL TELECOMMUNICATIONS TAX

GENERAL LIABILITY:

The tax is imposed on telecommunication companies for the privilege of providing toll telecommunication service in the District, including wireless telecommunication providers. The service charge is on any sound, vision or speech communication for which there is a toll charge that varies in amount with the distance or elapsed transmission time of each individual communication or the transmission or reception of any sound, vision or speech communication that entitles a person upon the payment of a periodic charge that is determined as a flat amount or upon the basis of a total elapsed transmission time, to an unlimited number if communications to or from all or a substantial portion of persons who have telephone or radio telephone stations in a specified area outside the local telephone system area in which the station that provides the service is located.

The items clearly omitted from this tax are anything to do with equipment sales, rental, maintenance, repair or charges.

D.C. Code Citation: Title 47, Chapter 39.

PRESENT RATE: (January 1, 2007)

- 10% of gross charges – residential
- 11% of gross charges – non-residential

Note: 1% of non-residential is dedicated towards financing construction of new baseball stadium through the life of the bonds (2036).

NON-TAX REVENUE AND LOTTERY

NON-TAX REVENUE

GENERAL LIABILITY:

Local non-tax revenue includes licenses and permits, parking and traffic fines, charges for services, interest income and other revenue sources.

REVENUE:

Fiscal Year	Revenues
2006	$361,951,000
2007 (Estimate)	$327,417,000
2008 (Estimate)	$326,111,000

LOTTERY

GENERAL LIABILITY:

Every year, the District of Columbia Lottery and Charitable Games Control Board transfers the net proceeds of receipts from lottery gaming to the General Fund. The proceeds are equal to gross receipts net of payouts and administrative costs. Games included as part of the DC Lottery are DC Lucky Numbers, DC Four, Powerball, DC Keno, Rolling Cash 5, DC Daily 6, Hot Lotto, Instant Tickets, and Extra. The transfer is based primarily on ticket sales and prize payout.

REVENUE:

Fiscal Year	Revenues
2006	$73,800,000
2007 (Estimate)	$72,100,000
2008 (Estimate)	$72,100,000

SPECIAL PURPOSE NON-TAX REVENUE

GENERAL LIABILITY:

Special purpose non-tax revenues, often times referred to as “Other” or “O”-Type or dedicated revenues, are funds generated from fees, fines, assessments or reimbursements that are dedicated to the District agency that collects the revenues to cover the cost of performing the function. The “dedication” of the revenue to the collecting agency is what distinguishes this revenue from the general-purpose non-tax revenues. The legislation that creates the fee, fine or assessment must stipulate its purpose-designation and must also state whether any unspent funds are to retain designation at the conclusion of the fiscal year or revert to general-purpose funds. Unspent revenue in certain funds cannot revert to general purpose funds. Dedicated revenues limit the use of the District’s General Fund revenue by earmarking a portion of the revenue for special purposes. Prior to Fiscal Year 2003, dedicated non-tax revenues were not considered local revenues and as such, were reported with private grants in the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR). Beginning with the Fiscal Year 2004 proposed budget, they have been included in the General fund along with non-dedicated local revenues.

REVENUE:

1/ The revenue effect of each law change is mutually exclusive.

2/ The revenue effect of adding financial institutions to the corporation franchise tax base resulted in a revenue loss of $7.2 million annually by Fiscal Year 1985. The increase shown results from the mechanisms of phasing in the change.

3/ Increase tax change effective on a calendar year basis.

4/ Top bracket may be reduced as low as 8.0%, depending upon revenue and economic performance.

5/ Revenue impact represents increase in general fund (local) revenues.

6/ Estimate provided by Department of Public Works.

7/ For owner-occupied, property sold under $250,000, the rate will remain at 1.1%.

8/ Revenue effect reflects loss to general fund (local) revenues.

9/ Department of Finance and Revenue requires Tax Standing Evaluation Reports.

10/ Amnesty from penalties and interest for all taxes except real property tax and unemployment compensation. Effective October 1, 1987, penalties and interest for all taxes except real property and unemployment compensation increase.

11/ For owner-occupied, property sold under $400,000, rate will remain at 1.1%.

PART V -- FILING AND PAYMENT DATES FY 2006

FILING AND PAYMENT DATES
FY 2006

Alcoholic Beverage Tax

The tax is due by the 15th day of each month on the preceding month's sales.

Cigarette Tax

Payment is made by the purchase of stamps.

Estate Tax

Returns and tax are due 10 months after death of decedent. A District of Columbia Estate Tax Return must be filed if a Federal Estate Tax Return is required to be filed. Generally, the amount of the tax is the credit for state death tax allowed on the federal return.

A penalty of 5% per month, but not more than 25% in the aggregate, of the tax due is imposed for the failure to timely file the return or pay the tax. Interest is assessed on any tax not paid by the due date at the rate of 10% compounded daily per statute.

Income Taxes:

Corporate and Unincorporated Business Franchise Taxes

Corporate returns are due and payment of the tax must be made on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of the taxable year. Unincorporated business franchise tax returns are due and payment of tax must be made on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year. A penalty of 5%, but not more than 25% in the aggregate, is imposed for failure to timely file returns. Interest is imposed for any tax not paid when due at the rate of 10% compounded daily per statute until the tax is paid.

Individual Income Tax

Calendar year returns are due on or before April 15 of the succeeding year while fiscal year returns are due on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year.

The penalty for failure to file a return on time is 5% of the tax due, but not more than 25% in the aggregate. Interest is charged at the rate of 10% compounded daily per statute due date of the return to the date the tax is paid.

The penalty for failure to file in a timely manner a declaration of estimated tax is 5% per month of the estimated tax, but not more than 25% in the aggregate. Interest is imposed for failure to pay any installment when due at the rate of 10% compounded daily per statute.

Employers must withhold District individual income taxes from employees who are subject to the tax. If such withholding is less than $50 per month, the employer must remit the tax by the last day of the month following the close of the tax year; if withholding is $50 or more per month, it must be remitted by the 20th day of the following month.

The penalty for failure to file the withholding tax return or to pay the tax when due is 5% of the tax withheld during the reporting period, but not more than 25% in the aggregate. Interest is charged for late payment at the rate of 10% compounded daily per statute from the due date of the return to the date the tax is paid.

Insurance Tax

If tax liability is less than $1,000, the tax must be paid before March 1 of the succeeding calendar year. If tax liability is $1,000 or more, at least 50% of tax must be paid by June 1 of the calendar year in which the taxable income is received. The remainder is due on or before March 1 following the close of the calendar year. A penalty of 8% per month of the tax due is charged for failure to timely pay the insurance tax.

Motor Vehicle Fuel Tax

Reports and tax are due by the 25th day of each month on the preceding month's sales or dispositions.

Motor Vehicle Registration Fee

Under the staggered motor vehicle registration system, motorists will pay their registration fees upon assumption of ownership of the vehicle or by an assigned day of the year.

Personal Property Tax

The return, accompanied by the tax payment, is due on or before July 31 of each year on the tangible personal property remaining cost (current value) as of July 1. A penalty of 5% per month, but not more than 25% in the aggregate, is imposed for failure to timely file returns. Interest at the rate of 10% compounded daily per statute is charged until the tax is paid.

Real Property Tax

The assessment year begins on January 1 and ends on December 31. Property owners receive notices of proposed assessments on or before the following February 1 and have until April 1 to appeal such assessments before the Assessment Division. If the assessor and the property owner, or party of interest, do not resolve a disputed value, the property owner may proceed to the Board of Real Property Assessments and Appeals (BRPAA). BRPAA will not accept an appeal unless there has first been an appeal to the Assessment Division.

The tax may be paid in full or in two equal installments. One-half the tax is payable on or before March 31 and the other half tax is due on or before September 15. A 10% penalty is imposed for late payment of real estate tax bills. Interest at the rate of 10% compounded daily per statute is charged from the date the tax is due until the date the tax is paid.

Public Utility Tax

Returns are due by the 20th day of each month on the preceding month's gross receipt. A penalty of 5% per month, but not more than 25% in the aggregate, is charged for failure to file return or pay taxes on time. Interest is charged at the rate of 10% compounded daily per statute until the tax is paid.

Recordation Tax

The deed recordation tax is due when the deed is recorded. Each deed must be accompanied by a return before it can be recorded. The penalty for failure to make and file a correct return is 5% per month, but not more than 25% in the aggregate. Interest at the rate of ½ of one percent per month is charged on any recordation tax not paid when due.

Real Property Transfer Tax

The transfer tax is due when the deed is recorded and each deed must be accompanied by a transfer tax return. A penalty of 4% of the tax due is imposed for failure to file the transfer tax return. Interest is charged at the rate of 1.25% per month.

Economic Interest Transfer

The economic interest transfer tax is triggered by two elements. These elements are 1) 80% of the assets of a corporation consist of real property located in the District of Columbia, and 2) more than 50% of the controlling interest of the corporation is being transferred. If these two elements are met then the tax rate is 3.0% of the consideration. The consideration is not always equal to the assessed value of the property. The consideration is what is paid for the interest being transferred. If there is no tangible consideration, then the tax basis will be the assessed value of the property owned by the corporation. The tax is due at the time of recordation.

Sales and Use Taxes

Monthly returns and tax are due by the 20th day of each month following the reporting period. If the due date falls on Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday, the return is due on the next business day. To avoid a delinquency notice, a return must be filed even if no sales were made or no sales or use tax is due.

An annual return is due on or before January 20th. To avoid delinquency notices, a return must be filed even if no sales were made or no sales or use tax is due.

A penalty of 5% per month, but not more than 25% in the aggregate, is charged for failure to file sales and use tax returns or to pay sales and use taxes on time. Interest is charged at the rate of 10% compounded per statute until the tax is paid.

There is a 20% penalty on any understatement of taxes due if the understatement exceeds either 10% of the tax determined to be due or $2,000, whichever is the greater. (Understatement of taxes is the difference between the amount shown on the original or amended return and any greater amount of tax determined to be due as a result of an audit or review.)

Toll Telecommunications Tax

Returns and tax are due by the 20th day of each month on the preceding month's charges. An annual return must be filed on or before 30 days after the end of the tax year.

A penalty of 5% per month, but not more than 25% in the aggregate, is charged for failure to file tax returns or to pay toll telecommunications taxes on time. Interest is charged at the rate of 10% compounded per statute until the tax is paid.
