RE: FOIA Appeal 2017-160

Dear Mr. Christian:

This letter responds to the administrative appeal you submitted to the Mayor under the District of Columbia Freedom of Information Act, D.C. Official Code § 2-537 ("DC FOIA"), on the grounds that that the Office of the Chief Financial Officer ("OCFO") failed to respond to your July 22, 2017 request for certain records.

After you filed your appeal, the OCFO advised our Office that it responded to your request on September 20, 2017.¹ Since your appeal was based on the OCFO's lack of response, we consider your appeal to be moot, and it is dismissed. The dismissal shall be without prejudice to you to assert any challenge, by separate appeal, to the substantive response that the OCFO sent you.

If you are dissatisfied with this decision, you may commence a civil action against the District of Columbia government in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia in accordance with DC FOIA.

Respectfully,

Mayor's Office of Legal Counsel

cc: Stacie Y.L. Mills, General Counsel, OCFO (via email)
