RE: FOIA Appeal 2018-056

Dear Mr. Bruni:

This letter responds to the administrative appeal that you submitted to the Mayor under the District of Columbia Freedom of Information Act, D.C. Official Code § 2-537 ("DC FOIA"), on the grounds that the Office of Contracting and Procurement ("OCP") failed to respond to your November 8, 2017 request for certain records.

This Office contacted OCP on December 18, 2017, and notified the agency of your appeal. OCP responded on December 29, 2017, advising us that it responded to your request on the same date.¹

Since your appeal was based on OCP's failure to respond to your request, and the agency has now responded, your appeal is hereby dismissed on the grounds that it is moot; provided, that you are free to challenge OCP's substantive response by separate appeal to this Office.

If you are dissatisfied with this decision, you may commence a civil action against the District of Columbia government in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia in accordance with DC FOIA.

Respectfully,

Mayor's Office of Legal Counsel

cc: D. Ryan Koslosky, Associate General Counsel, OCP (via email)
