Dear [Redacted]

This letter responds to your administrative appeal (the "Appeal") to the Mayor under the District of Columbia Freedom of Information Act, D.C. Official Code, 2001 Ed. §§ 2-351 et seq. ("DC-FOIA"), dated January 12, 2009. We forwarded your Appeal to the Washington Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) with a request for a response. MPD responded to the Appeal on February 24, 2009. The foregoing represents the appellate record, upon which this decision is based.

In your initial FOIA request, dated October 1, 2008, you requested the arrest records of Metropolitan Police Department First District officers [Redacted] Badge [Redacted] [Redacted] Badge [Redacted] [Redacted], Badge [Redacted]; and [Redacted] (badge number not indicated) between January 5, 2007 and January 5, 2008. By letter dated February 24, 2009, MPD responded to your appeal, indicating that it was providing you with the information you requested.

In light of the fact that MPD has responded to your FOIA request and provided you with the requested records, we find this Appeal moot and hereby DISMISS your Appeal. If you are dissatisfied with this decision, you are free under the DC FOIA to commence a civil action against the District of Columbia government at any time in the District of Columbia Superior Court.

Sincerely,
